ROBERTS-CUNNINGHAM.

Fred Roberts, of St. Louis, a son o D. M. Roberts, living 6 miles south west of Mexico, and Miss Mattie Cur ningham, who lives with her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Cunning lic Church, were married by Rev. Dr. J. B. Hawkins at his residence on perty street at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The marriage was a total surprise the couple went to the home of the with the mother and brother of the bride. The brother, Claude, especially resented the wedding on account of the youth of both contracting par-ties. The groom is not yet 21 and the bride is barely of age.

The talk was continued until almost daylight Sunday morning and it was finally concluded to see if the marriage could be annulled. The bride's brother went to Lawyer Fry's home at 5 o'clock Sunday morning to seek his advice. He informed the young man that the matter could be adjusted only by a decree of divorce by the
